

(Regional) Annual Visit Duration

Visit Duration by Site Type and Subunit

| Subunit                    | Average Length of Stay (hours) |                          |                         |                               |                       |                          |
|----------------------------|--------------------------------|--------------------------|-------------------------|-------------------------------|-----------------------|--------------------------|
|                            | National Forest Visit*         | Site Visit† by Site Type |                         |                               |                       |                          |
|                            |                                | All Site Visits          | Day Use Developed Sites | Overnight Use Developed Sites | Designated Wilderness | Undeveloped Areas (GFAs) |
| Sawtooth NRA (Sawtooth NF) | 21.7                           | 14.7                     | 1.6                     | 57.5                          | 16.8                  | 10.9                     |

|                                      |
|--------------------------------------|
| Selected Subunits:                   |
| Sawtooth NRA (Sawtooth NF) (FY 2015) |

* A National Forest Visit is defined as the entry of one person upon a national forest to participate in recreation activities for an unspecified period of time. A National Forest Visit can be composed of multiple Site Visits.

† A Site Visit is the entry of one person onto a national forest site or area to participate in recreation activities for an unspecified period of time.